

18 June 1958

I feel it appropriate at this time to bring to your attention the excellent performance of [redacted] of your organization, in carrying out an important and difficult assignment for this Agency during the past ten months.

[redacted] discharged his responsibilities in this work with highly commendable energy, enterprise, and skill, and the results of his activities represent a distinctly valuable service to the Government.

We are presently considering an enlarged program in the general field in which [redacted] has been engaged. If this program is actually adopted, it is hoped you will find it possible to make [redacted] services available to us for at least another year, since the experience and knowledge already gained by him would be almost indispensable in organizing and soundly establishing this wider activity. I shall immediately advise you if it becomes necessary to seek your further cooperation in this direction.

I wish to assure you, personally and on behalf of our organization, that your sympathetic interest in our work and your generous release of [redacted] are deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Acting Director
